The current Forstaff agreement is due to expire shortly and as members are aware meetings have been held with Forstaff management regarding cross utilisation and a new EBA. The ALAEA has committed to further meetings regarding a new EBA and this Notice does not override or supersede previous Notices from the Federal Secretary regarding Cross Utilisation.

The ALAEA as requested by your representative committee is now calling for submissions of items to be included in our log of claims. Members are invited to forward their suggested EBA Log Of Claim items by no later than close of business next Friday the 2nd of November via the following methods.

- (1) Via letter to the Federal Office.
- (2) Via fax to the Federal office.
- (3) Via letter to your local area Representative.
- (4) Via email to the ALAEA website

All correspondence must include your name, membership number and suggested item that you would like put forward as a claim. All items will be taken into consideration and items that have been forwarded by the majority will then be included in the log of claims. As stated above submissions will close on Friday the 2nd of November 2007.
