❖ NOTICE ❖

TO: QANTAS ALAEA MEMBERS SYDNEY
RE: ACS A380 TEAM SELECTION GRIEVANCES

Members are advised the ALAEA and Qantas are yet to reach agreement on the Selection Criteria for the ACS A380 Team. Members who have applied for a position on the ACS A380 Team and believe they should have been interviewed and were not are advised to lodge a Grievance in accordance with Qantas Group Policy "Employee Grievances Resolution Policy".

The Grievance may be lodged through the ALAEA Office at Bexley or directly to Qantas Manager People ACS Peter Styles and must be made by midday (1200 hours) Friday 16th November 2007. The Grievance needs to briefly state your grounds for the Grievance. E.g. "I believe I possess better qualifications and/or experience than other candidates who applied and were given interviews."

The ALAEA will provide assistance to members who wish to lodge a grievance within the required timeframe and if necessary an Appeal should the member be aggrieved of the process, decision or outcome of the Grievances Procedure.

If you are lodging your Grievance through the ALAEA please email to rachelm@alaea.asn.au with the words "QF A380 Grievance" in the Subject box of the email. If email is not available to you, fax to Rachel at 02 9554 9644 with "QF A380 Grievance" clearly written on the front sheet of your fax or drop it in to the ALAEA office Bexley before midday Friday 16th November 2007.
