

A MESSAGE TO WORKERS AT JOHN HOLLAND AVIATION SERVICES

From the ALAEA and the AMWU

12 November 2009

The ALAEA & AMWU have been working with members for 12 months in an attempt to resolve shift and roster patterns at JHAS Tullamarine.

Accordingly, after many meetings, discussion, debate and considerable legal opinion, the unions have decided that this matter would be best dealt with by Fair Work Australia. Therefore, a hearing at Fair Work Australia Melbourne is set for 23 November 2009 to commence resolving this issue.

Site report back meetings as a result of the Fair Work Australia hearing will be conducted by the ALAEA & AMWU as follows;

- 26 November 2009
- 12pm-1pm and 6.30pm-7pm
- Venue-JHAS Tullamarine TBA

Both unions congratulate workers on the job taking a stand by attending recent union coordinated site meetings, as well as conducting your own petition on the job to present to local management.

Both the ALAEA & AMWU are determined to continue to work with members' to see this issue through to a successful outcome.

For further information please contact your respective union organiser;
